From Pastor Hart Edmonds, Interim:

Where To Touch the Elephant

The well-known story of the elephant and the blind men has several versions. One version goes like this: a group of blind men touch an elephant to learn what it is like. Each one, though, touches a different part of the animal, and, based on that part, infer a larger truth about what the entire elephant must be like. In one account, the elephant is like a wicker basket to the one who touched the ear, a pot to the blind man who touched the head and a brush to the one who touched the tip of the tail. When they compare their experiences, they discover their disagreement. Each one has his own view of reality, depending upon where he touched the elephant. Someone once said that truth is like an elephant surrounded by blind men.

Picking up on this story, I heard a respected church leader remark, “I touch the elephant wherever the elephant appears.” His remark is based on the idea that the enormity of the elephant prevents anyone from comprehending the whole. One can only observe what there is there in front of him or her. The elephant is too monstrous to handle in its entirety.

Let’s examine the elephant-touch dilemma as it affects the life of today’s church and even the church here at KHPC. If we think of the elephant as representing the church’s mission, do all touches have the same value? Is there a place we all must touch? Finally, can we touch the church’s mission in different places, disagree, and still work together? I believe we can.

Applying the elephant rule to life, one cannot deal with everything: therefore, one must work with what is at hand or known. The same rule applies to the church. Touch whatever aspect of mission is within reach. No congregation has to cover every part of the elephant. Leaders and members of each church need to humbly recognize they are not God’s only agent of renewal in the community. As we embrace our new guiding vision, “God’s Spirit at Work”, it is helpful to know that God only expects us to touch the part of God’s wider mission that is present before us. Discerning what part of mission that we are to address is part of the fun and adventure of being church together.

And yet all congregations need to touch tikkun olam, a Jewish concept that means “to mend the world.” It sums up God’s work. As respected church leader and biblical scholar “N. T. Wright elaborates: “What you do in the present-by painting, preaching, singing, sewing, praying, teaching, building hospitals, digging wells, going on mission trips with the youth to Pennsylvania or adults to Guatemala, campaigning for justice, writing poems, caring for the needy, cooking for hungry, loving your neighbor as yourself-will last into God’s future.”

Whatever we do to mend the world has lasting value. Everyone contributes. God blesses each and every gift. So here’s a question for you. In the coming year, where do you feel God’s Spirit is nudging you to reach out and touch the elephant of mission and service?

NOTES FROM THE KHPC SESSION . . .

The KHPC Session met on Tuesday, January 10, 2012, at 6:30 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. In addition to the regular members of Session, guests Bob Kamp, Treasurer and Sue Kitchen from the Stewardship Committee and Vision Writing Panel were present.

Jan Goings and Sue Imhausen gave a brief presentation of the history of writing the Guiding Vision Statement. After reading the statement aloud, Session members were invited to respond and highlight areas which spoke strongly to them. Discussion followed. The next steps were outlined.

The revised Budget for 2012 was examined. After discussion and clarification of figures, a motion to adopt the Budget for 2012 was made. The motion passed.

Sue Kitchen made a report on the Stewardship Campaign. Although the number of pledging units was down somewhat, the dollars pledged increased. Mrs. Kitchen recommended beginning the campaign earlier and retaining the same stewardship committee members.

The Finance Committee proposed consulting with Ray Schulte to consider the next steps in dealing with our budget deficit.

Pastor Hart recommended the appointment of a committee of three Session members to meet with Rev. Edwin Goedecke of the Presbytery Committee on Ministry to discuss the expectations for the formation of a Pastor Nominating Committee. The members who volunteered were Sue Roerdanz, Lyn Battle and Janet Langhorst.

The Clerk's Report and Pastor's Report were presented and accepted.

The Youth Group has committed to a mission trip to Blue Knob, Pennsylvania, from July 22-28. Fund raisers are planned. The dates and location were approved.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:00 p.m. The next meeting is February 14 at 6:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Sue Imhausen, Clerk of Session

CELEBRATING THE GOOD STUFF

“Celebrate God all day, every day.....Summing it all up, friends, I’d say you’ll do best by filling your minds and meditating on things true, noble, reputable, authentic, compelling, gracious—the best, not the worst; the beautiful, not the ugly; things to praise, not things to curse.”

(The Message Bible--Philippians 4: 4, 8-9)

Recent “good news events”:

- The Vision Statement is a reality! At our Annual Meeting, we received the statement that was the work of many months and much congregational input. Thanks to everyone!

- We have a new Pennies for Peace total. Our new total stand at $356.87, (that’s 35,687 pennies!) which puts us almost to our next goal of collecting $365. Thank you for all the donations so far and please keep the pennies coming.

- The artists of KHPC are making their mark in the community and beyond.

Hyeeun Suh will play a piano recital at 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, February 29, at Werner Recital Hall at UC-CCM. (We will be having a group from KHPC attend—please contact Janet or the office if you would like to go.) This is a free event.

Anthony Wallace will be playing Joseph in “Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat”, being presented at Princeton High School on March 2-4. (We will also have a group attending this show, so let Janet or the office know if you’d like to be a part of it.) There is a ticket cost—watch the bulletin and e-news for more information.

Abby Langhorst has been named to the 2012 edition of “Who’s Who of American Colleges and Universities”. She was nominated by Dr. Judith Bundra, associate dean of the DePaul University School of Music.

Mary Kamp and colleagues are starting a “Dance for PD” class for people with Parkinson’s Disease. Started over 20 years ago by a modern dance company in Brooklyn, these classes provide increased mobility, aesthetic enjoyment, and community for those who participate. Janet Langhorst is also the accompanist for some of the classes.

- The Youth Group has committed to a Mission Trip in Blue Knob, PA in July. They will be assisting with rural ministry projects, primarily home repair and assistance.

- We enjoyed hearing Tiffany Zents speak on Martin Luther King Sunday. Tiffany is the Presbyterian Representative to the board of MARCC and also spent much of her childhood in Africa with her missionary parents.

Want to help keep the good news coming??? Visit the Mission Table in Fellowship Hall to see how you can help. Also, be sure and share YOUR good news.

CINCINNATI OPERA

PORGY AND BESS
Redux

Cincinnati Opera Comes to District A

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 7 – 8 PM

Kennedy Heights Presbyterian Church, 6312 Kennedy Avenue

Porgy and Bess

Porgy and Bess, the great American opera composed by jazz musician George Gershwin, will be presented by Cincinnati Opera for the very first time in June 2012. YOU CAN SEE IT NOW ... on FEB 11th in District A.

“Opera Redux: Porgy and Bess” will bring some of the best of Porgy and Bess to our community. You’ll hear such favorites as “Summertime,” “I Got Plenty o’ Nuttin’,” “It Ain’t Necessarily So,” and “I Loves You Porgy.”

Porgy and Bess is not only famous for its songs, but was a landmark work for its sympathetic portrayal of African-American characters. In 1935, when Gershwin insisted on an all-black cast for the opera’s Broadway premiere, he defied the norm of white actors in blackface.

“Opera Redux: Porgy and Bess” is directed by Lemuel Wade, who will also direct the Cincinnati Opera full production at Music Hall in June.

A Community ARTS Gift to You. Your Admission is FREE.

Brought to you by ArtsWave and District A

CALLING ALL WRITERS

Over the past few months, several folks have mentioned to me an interest in some sort of writers group being established here in the Presbytery. I know there are folks who are writers, who have been published; there are also folks who would like to explore that gift within them in a safe and supportive place. Most of the groups I am familiar with get together on a regular basis (monthly, every other week, etc.) and simply share what they are working on, what their interests are, informational things like how to get published, and how they write.

I would be willing to host such a group here at Immanuel Presbyterian (which I think is fairly central to the churches in the Presbytery. Tuesday or Thursday afternoons are best for me, but flexibility is always the key.)

If you are interested, please email me at tshuman@cinci.rr.com and give me at least two possible days / times you could meet, and I will work on getting folks together for the first time.

This is a group for both clergy and lay folks.
